

City of Redmond Planning Commission June 4, 2003 Meeting Summary

Planning Commissioners in Attendance:

Kim Allen, Gordon Bluechel, Sue Petitpas, Martin Snodgrass. Commissioners Dunn and McCarthy arrived after the start of the meeting.

Staff in Attendance:

Lori Peckol, Cathy Beam, Redmond Planning Department

Business Conducted:

Commission Chair Snodgrass called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm.

The Planning Commission excused Commissioners Ku. The Commission approved meeting minutes for May 21, and changed the study session order on the agenda so that Commissioner McCarthy could be present for the discussion of 116th Street Impact Fee Overlay District.

No one spoke under Items from the Audience.

Chair Snodgrass opened the study session on Shoreline Master Program, DGA 02-015. Cathy Beam provided responses to the Planning Commission on several questions from the previous study session. The Commission discussed issues and proposed updates for the Shoreline Environment element. See the issues table for issues resolved and a summary of discussion points. Elements scheduled for discussion and preliminary recommendation for the next meeting include completion of the Shoreline Environment element, as well as Public Access and Historic and Cultural Use.

Commissioner Petitpas suggested that Commissioners work in smaller groups to review various sections of the proposed regulations for Shoreline Master Program in greater detail and provide reports to the full Commission. Commissioner Snodgrass suggested exploring this idea further with staff as part of the weekly coordination meetings.

Chair Snodgrass opened the study session on NE 116th St. Transportation Impact Fee Overlay District. Commissioner McCarthy provided an update on the Committee's progress in developing a recommendation. He commented that the Committee expected to complete its recommendation in time for inclusion with the packet for the June 11 meeting. Commissioner Dunn asked for information on right-of-way acquisition costs and a recommendation on developer credit for completed improvements in preparation for discussion of the Committee's recommendation at the June 11 meeting.

Ms. Peckol reported on the most recent City Council meeting. The Commission agreed to hold discussion of the Redmond Design Day workshop for the next meeting.

The Commission reviewed the extended schedule and discussed timing for completing a recommendation on 116th Street Impact Fee Overlay District.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 pm.
